MAN FROM PARIS TO LECTURE
AT MUSEUM, November 4

Jean Feray of Paris will review "French Interior Decoration in the 18th Century" on Wednesday, November 4 at 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium of The Cleveland Museum of Art. He will illustrate his talk with color slides of outstanding examples of French decorative art.

M. Feray is an inspector of historic monuments for the French Government and has lectured at the Musee des Arts Decoratifs. He has his master's degree in art and archeology and is a specialist on the style of Louis XVI.
